Notes:1. Attending the Annual General Meeting in person

A member who is entitled to attend and vote at this meeting is entitled to appoint one proxy to attend, speak and vote on their behalf. Such a proxy need not also be a member of the Company. Every Ordinary Member has one vote.

To be entitled to attend and vote at the Annual General Meeting (and for the purpose of determining the votes they may cast), Ordinary Members must be registered in the Company's register of members at close of business two days (excluding non-working days) prior to the meeting. Changes to the register of members after the relevant deadline will be disregarded in determining the rights of any person to attend and vote at the Annual General Meeting.

2. Appointment of Proxy

A Form of Proxy for use by members is enclosed. Completion of the Form of Proxy will not prevent a member from attending the meeting and voting in person. If you submit more than one valid proxy appointment, the appointment received last before the latest time for the receipt of proxies will take precedence.

To be valid the proxy form must be completed and lodged, together with the power of attorney or any authority (if any) under which it is signed with the Company Secretary no later than 48 hours (excluding non-working days) before the time set for the meeting, or any adjourned meeting.

3. Questions and Answers

Pursuant to section 319A of the Companies Act 2006, the Company must provide an answer to any question that is put by a member attending the AGM relating to the business being considered, except if a response would not be in the interest of the Company or for the good order of the meeting or if to do so would involve the disclosure of confidential information. The Company may, however, elect to provide an answer to a question, within a reasonable period of days after the conclusion of the AGM.
